PMV-4 Mishap Claims One Soldier's Life

A Private First Class assigned to Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington, died in a PMV-4 mishap 30 December 2019 in Spotsylvania County, Virginia, at 2300 local. The Soldier was a passenger in a private motor vehicle that left the roadway and struck a tree. The civilian driver survived, but the Soldier was pronounced dead at the scene. Local law enforcement is investigating the mishap. This was the seventh PMV-4 fatality in FY20.

*PLRs are intended to be used as an engagement tool for leaders to discuss the hazards and trends impacting Soldier safety and readiness. The PLR contains only basic information but provides sufficient background to allow leaders an opportunity to communicate risk at the Soldier level.
